

J. WENDELL WALKER

“THE CLASSIC COMIC”

Jay Wendell Walker has been described by critical reviewers as a “heavy weight champion of comedy”. Raised in a family of vaudeville performers, his career began at the age of 18. Show business took Jay Wendell as far south as Mexico, and as far north as Canada and Alaska where he began learning his comic craft. He is well known for his ability to relate to any age audience and adapt to any situation.

Over the years, he has emceed at beauty pageants, performed for private clubs, entertained at county fairs, and headlined at numerous comedy clubs throughout the United States and Canada.

That’s just the tip of the iceberg. His voice has been heard by radio listeners and the “expressive mug” of the gregarious comedian is familiar to television buffs.

Jay Wendell Walker’s rapid-fire monologue, storytelling, and hilarious facial expressions have gained for him success in many comedy clubs throughout the nation. Jay Wendell has made the northwest his home, but he enjoys traveling throughout the country up the 50 weeks a year.

Jay Wendell Walker is a past president of the Seattle Independent Comedy CO-OP. He is a member of the American Federation of Television and Radio Artists, and a member of Platform Speaker Services International.

“Walker with his years of experience waltzed on to the stage Friday Night, and immediately had the crowd in the palm of his hand. In the three times I’ve seen him, he has repeated very little material, and what little he did repeat seems fresh with each delivery. His timing is flawless, and his instincts on which direction to take the audience are keen.”

The Rapid City Journal

“You will see that Jay is eager to serve your corporate entertainment needs in the same successful way he did ours...A word of caution, however, before you invite him to perform for your corporation, ensure that he knows nothing about your golf handicap...!”
